

DTH-09

Register Find Housing at HeelsHousing.com Job Board Advertise Contact Us About Us

Friday, April 10, 2009

The Courtyard Search

Search the Archives

Keywords: The Courtyard Search MM/DD/YY MM/DD/YY

Showing 1 - 10 of 80.

Sort by Closest Match Newest First Oldest First

courtyard

October 28, 2008

courtyard 2

October 28, 2008

clock

October 28, 2008

court

October 28, 2008

playboy

March 27, 2009

Better name for courtyard could have been found

TO THE EDITOR: The University should reconsider naming the Boshamer Stadium courtyard after the Steinbrenner family. The powers that be should name the courtyard after someone more suitable than the Steinbrenners. The family has no real ties to the Carolina baseball program other than...

Rift about Courtyard parking lot widens

P.H. Craig, the owner of several parking spaces on West Franklin Street, took the first step Friday to stop Courtyard businesses' patrons and employees from using his spaces...

The Courtyard complex's future is uncertain

Business owners at the Courtyard complex on West Franklin Street are holding their breath to see what effects a coming change in ownership will have on their businesses.

Wachovia foreclosed on the property at 431 W. Franklin St. on Tuesday at an Orange County Superior Court hearing for owner

October 30, 2008 by Whitney Baker, Staff Writer

Marriott opens new hotel in Chapel Hill

September 24, 2004 by MEGAN LAVINE

Town may settle lot dispute

Parking in downtown Chapel Hill is a problem once again as two property owners are in conflict over the lot that sits in front of the Courtyard shopping center on West Franklin Street. At the center of the dispute are Spencer Young, who bought the Courtyard in 2005, and P. Young, who bought the lot in 2005...

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 Next

Register to receive our free e-mail edition

© 2008 The Daily Tar Heel - All Rights Reserved

College Publisher powered by mtvU and MTV Networks

Fiscally Irresponsible

NOTE: This statement is FALSE; and the underlying article has been removed